

The Living Experiment

Figuring out life one educated guess at a time

And that's a wrap! (SRS +19, heading home)

Well, I got a last meal in with some a group of 7-8 of us, said bye to the friends I made, wished them the best and a speedy and smooth recovery, diluted, packed, and am on the way to the airport.

I'm dreading the ANA (air Nippon airways) flight to Tokyo since I couldn't check seat assignments or get an upgrade. Hopefully it's not a full fought when I check in and maybe even they'll have better seating they can move me to. We'll see.

I've packed so much. My suitcases are about 6 lbs under my limit, I have my bookbag filled to the brim, and the large Suporn bag (last two are carry on) along with purse and sitting pillow. Ugh. Hopefully I don't run into issues. So heavy though.

Also last dilation this morning was rough. Not doing another for 27 hours will suck. My stitches and inner labia aren't happy either and want to lay back down/sleep. I keep telling my pussy she just needs to get through the next 10 hours and she'll be laying down and able to sleep. She doesn't care and is still grumpy on the stitch lines that have sutures still. And I'm just sitting in the car on the way to the airport lol.

Today is going to be fun... #Sarcasm
